

Food Safety Supervisor Training

New regulations in NSW mean that all food retail outlets in NSW now must have a Food Safety Supervisor who is responsible for safe food handling.

This includes restaurants, cafes, and take-away businesses.

Food Safety Supervisor training is available at your convenience 24/7 on www.cft.com.au

The Food Safety Supervisor must complete the two Hospitality units of:

SITXOHS002A -

Follow Workplace Hygiene Procedures

SITXFSA001A -

Implement Food Safety Procedures

You can train at your own pace, in your own time, 24/7!

- Enrol at www.cft.com.au and begin training immediately
- No need to travel to find a class
